

Biographical Notes

Nick Turner APFS PFS Director

Nick joined AXA in 1985. His experience includes Technical Management (Tax and Pensions Planning), first hand sales experience, Executive Assistant to the CEO, Distribution Strategy and Business Development where he was responsible for securing, amongst others, the Britannia Building Society single tie arrangement for AXA Wealth.

Over the last ten years, Nick has held several strategy, sales and marketing related roles, including Sales Director for AXA Wealth and Head of Proposition for Elevate, the award winning wrap platform.

More recently, he has broadened his remit to include both General Insurance and Healthcare. In his last role as Director of UK Partnerships, he was responsible for developing valuable partnerships across the UK and globally, across the whole range of insurance related propositions.

Nick is currently the Managing Director for Intermediary and Partnerships in AXA Personal Lines in the UK.

Nick was elected to the PFS board in September 2011

January 2012