Date

Banks and Building Societies may decline to accept instructions to pay Direct Debits from some types of accounts.

The Direct Debit Guarantee:

- This Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay Direct Debits.
- If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your Direct Debit the Chartered Insurance Institute will notify you 10 working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed. If you request the Chartered Insurance Institute to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of the request.
- If an error is made in the payment of your Direct Debit, by the Chartered Insurance Institute or your bank or building society, you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society.
- If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when the Chartered Insurance Institute asks you to.
- You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us.

Section F - Declarations

In applying to become a member of the Personal Finance Society (PFS), I agree to be immediately bound by the PFS Articles of Association and Bye-laws. PFS members automatically become members of the Chartered Insurance Institute (CII). The CII is a professional body dedicated to building public trust in the insurance and financial planning professions. Suitability for membership is assessed based on completion of the below declarations. This is part of our commitment to high professional standards.

I therefore also agree to be immediately bound by the CII's Charter, Bye-laws, Code of Ethics, rules, regulations and requirements of membership. I also agree to be bound by the constitution and Bye-laws of any local institute of which I become a member. Full details of these obligations of membership can be found online at thepfs.org/memberobligations

Please tick the relevant box to confirm whether you have;

Been made bankrupt or been subject to an individual voluntary arrangement (or similar procedure) or any judgment debt. Yes No

Been subject to an adverse judgment of any court (or been charged but not yet tried with) any criminal offence other than a monetary fixed penalty for a motoring offence. Please note, if the conviction is considered spent under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act you should select 'No'. Yes No

Been subject to any disciplinary sanctions (or are currently the subject of any investigation) by the CII/PFS or any other professional and/or membership body or regulatory authority. Yes No

If you have answered 'yes' to any of these questions, please also provide any relevant details on a separate sheet of paper.

Please note: that whilst a member of the CII/PFS, you are required to let us know if and when, at any point in the future, your circumstances are such that you would have to answer 'yes' to any of the above.

Data protection and privacy

The CII will ensure that your personal data is processed in line with Data Protection legislation and the CII Data Protection and Privacy Statement (available at cii.co.uk/dataprotection). To process this application, I consent to the CII processing my data.

Use the PFS website to update your contact details and preferences, selecting the types of information and services you wish to receive and to opt in or out of mailings: thepfs.org/my-pfs

Please note: if you choose not to receive marketing emails, you will still receive transactional communications relating to your membership, qualifications, event bookings and voting rights, as well as important operational notifications relating to the CII/PFS. Where applicable, you can choose to receive these by post by logging in to thepfs.org/my-pfs and updating your preferences.

Privacy and electronic communications regulations

In order to keep you informed in a timely and cost-effective manner, the CII/PFS uses email as our principal method of communication. From time to time, we may wish to electronically draw your attention to other CII/PFS products and services which are likely to be of interest to you. I consent to receiving marketing communications from the CII/PFS by email. Yes No

To opt out of postal marketing communications from the CII/PFS and your local institute please send a request to Customer Service at customer.serv@thepfs.org

Sharing your data with local institutes

CII local institutes provide access to a programme of services including CPD events, training and networking opportunities designed to support you and complement your CII membership. We will share your data with your local institute (UK, Channel Islands and Isle of Man based members only) so they may send you relevant email communications. I consent to the CII/PFS sharing my data with my local institute. Yes No

Sharing information with your employer

The CII/PFS may receive a request from your employer to provide it with details of your assessment record and accreditation including all attempts and future entries, along with your CII/PFS permanent identity number. I consent to the CII/PFS sharing this information with my employer. Yes No

Your right to cancel

In accordance with The Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 ("the Regulations"), you have a right of cancellation in respect of your membership. This right (subject to the Regulations) expires 14 calendar days from the day on which your membership application is accepted or where written confirmation of your membership is received by you (please note that no refunds will be provided for cancellations made after these specified dates). Reimbursement for any monies paid by you which relate to the cancellation will be sent to you within 14 calendar days of receiving the notice of cancellation. Should you wish to cancel, notice should be sent to PFS Customer Service at customer.serv@thepfs.org

You will receive your new membership card within three weeks of payment being received. If you are paying by monthly direct debit, your card will be sent after the first payment has been made.

Membership support schemes

A number of schemes are available to support you should your circumstances change throughout your membership. These are as follows:

Retired membership scheme

If you take full retirement from the insurance or financial planning profession you can apply to join this scheme to continue your involvement with the CII/PFS at a reduced rate.

If you leave the industry and would like to maintain your relationship with the CII/PFS you can apply to join this scheme which offers continued membership at a reduced fee.

Membership support scheme

This scheme is designed to support you if you are experiencing a significant change in your circumstances. If you find yourself temporarily out-of-work through redundancy or unemployment, are on maternity leave/shared parental leave, or are unable to work through ill-health or other special circumstances, this scheme enables you to continue your membership at a reduced rate.

For further information on membership support schemes or to access an application form, visit: thepfs.org/supportschemes

Code of ethics

All CII/PFS members are required to uphold clearly defined and objectively measured standards of behaviour. These standards are contained within the CII/PFS Code of Ethics which all members are required to uphold as a condition of membership. This can be found at thepfs.org/code
