

CII Level 3 Certificate in Mortgage Advice

Qualification specification

Thank you for considering study with the CII.

This specification summarises the purpose and the content of this qualification to help you decide whether it meets your learning needs. The qualifications section of the CII website, unit syllabus documents and CII policies provide further detail on the features summarised here.

Qualification overview

The CII Level 3 Certificate in Mortgage Advice meets the FCA's qualification requirements for mortgage advisers and develops an understanding of the sector, the mortgage process and enables advisers to meet individual client needs.

Who is this qualification for?

This qualification is particularly appropriate for:

- Anyone seeking to give mortgage advice.
- Anyone working a non-advisory role in the mortgage market, for example, technical consultants or those in support roles.

Benefits for individuals and employers

Completion of the Certificate meets the FCA's appropriate qualification requirements for mortgage advisers. This means that you will meet the qualification requirement to provide mortgage advice and be able to demonstrate to your employer and your customers that you have gained the required knowledge and skills to support their aims.

Summary of content

The Certificate in Mortgage Advice comprises two compulsory units. These cover the market and regulatory context and the principles and processes entailed in the stages of mortgage advice.

Learning and assessment

Learning materials provided

For units in this qualification, students typically have access to the following materials as part of their enrolment:

- Study text (digital only or printed and digital) with online updates
- Online support including exam guide via RevisionMate

Additional or different resources may be available for some units.

Study time

Specific study time guidelines are provided for each unit on its webpage and in the CII qualifications brochure. The notional Ofqual 'Total Qualification Time' for this qualification is 160 hours.¹ This represents the time a student might typically take to complete the qualification.

Assessment format

Each unit is assessed by a single multiple-choice on screen exam, exams are available weekly at UK and non-UK online exam centres or via remote invigilation. The qualification award will be graded pass/fail.

To be awarded this qualification, each unit must be passed. The nominal pass mark for each unit within this qualification can be found on the relevant unit page. Please note, pass marks may vary from examination to examination to take account of the relative difficulty of examinations presented to candidates, ensuring that the pass standard remains constant.

We regularly update our qualifications, units and assessments to maintain industry relevance and assessment standards.

¹ 'Total Qualification Time' is a term that awarding organisations are required by Ofqual (the qualifications regulator in England) to use to describe the size of qualifications. <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/awarding-organisations-understanding-our-regulatory-requirements>

Further information on learning and assessment for each unit

Please ensure that you refer to the individual unit syllabus for unit-specific details:

- learning outcomes and assessment criteria
- further reading and resources
- important notes, such as the tax and legislative position that will be assessed

This is available on each unit webpage, accessible from the qualification webpage:
